

Eugene Field's

Views on Ambition and Dynapopis.

"Dyspepsia," wrote Eugene Field, "is an incapacity to eat for pleasure and sometimes extinguishes the fire of ambition." Though great despite his complaint Field suffered from indigestion all his life. A weak, tired stomach can't digest your food. It needs rest. You can only rest it by the use of a preparation like Kodol, which restores it of work by digesting your food. Rest soon restores it to its normal tone. Strengthening.

Satisfying. Invigorating.

Prepared only by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The St. Louis bottle contains 24 times the dose.
